ELTE | BGGYK
BÁRCZI GUSZTÁV GYÓGYPEDAGÓGIAI KAR

Easy to understand Communication - Easy to understand Life
www.konnyenertheto.gonczirita.hu

INVITATION

The ELTE Bárczi Gusztáv Faculty of Special Needs Education and the Community of the "Easy-to-Understand Communication – Easy-to-Understand Life" website cordially invite you to the

6th International Professional Conference titled

Easy-to-Understand Communication, Equal Access

Date: June 12, 2026 ● online

Program

10.00 – 10.05
Opening adress
Gabriella Dr. habil. Papp, Dean, ELTE BGGYK

10.05 – 10.15
5 Years of the International Conference on Easy-to-Understand Communication and Equal Access
Rita Farkasné Gönczi, PhD, assistant professor, ELTE BGGYK, website owner

10.15 – 10.30
A Guide to Voting in Easy-Language – A Collaboration with the Government
Jan Habegger, insieme Schweiz

10.30 – 10.45
Adapting text into Easy Language – a Finnish-Swedish perspective
Helena Holm-Cüzdan, Planner at the Swedish Centre for Easy Language in Finland

10.45 – 11.00
Simplification using AI tools
Ursula Semlitsch, capito, Austria

11.00 – 11.15
Application of Easy-to-Understand Communication with AI Support
Rita Farkasné Gönczi, PhD, assistant professor, ELTE BGGYK, website owner

11.00 – 11.15
Our editorial work! – protocol for the work of experienced experts
Borbála Bernáth, Miklós Szabados, Gábor Tóth, Slachta Margit National Institute for Social Policy

11.15 – 11.30
Easy-to-understand visitor booklet in an exhibition situation
Szabina N. Gáva, múzeumpedagógus MNMKK MNM

11.30 – 11.45
Easy-to-understand communication in inclusive public services
Katalin Gruiz, president, Down Alapítvány

11.45– 12.00
The emergence of easy-to-understand language in textbooks providing skills-building school practical training
Ágoston Magyar, assistant professor, SZTE JGYPK AHI Department of Hungarian and Applied Linguistics

12.00-12.15 PAUSE

PROJECT PRESENTATION ON THE AREAS OF EQUAL ACCESS
WORKS OF THE STUDENTS OF THE MASTER'S TEACHER TRAINING PROGRAM AT ELTE BGGYK

12.15 - 12.30
MA – Special education practice Open Spaces – inclusion in the museum project
Rita Farkasné dr. Gönczi, assistant professor, practice manager
Judit Dévényi, Erika Selmeczi

12.30 - 12.40
Intimate hygiene - for girls and women
Ferenczi Fanni, Juhász-Dubniczky Ildikó, Mervay Klára, Szalontai-Horváth Andrea, Tóth Orsolya

12.40 – 12.50
What's happening to your 5-year-old child? A guide for parents to services
Dakó Zsanett, Fodróczy Katalin, Gágó-Kovács Gabriella, Gyuricza-Matus Gyöngyi, Kenéz Adrienn

12.50 - 13.00
Supported decision-making
Báró Tímea, Dóci Magdolna, Götz Panna, Marosi Andrea, Sághy-Skriba Judit

13.00 – 13.10
KÉK (Easy to understand communication) school year opening
Antal Anita Éva, Halmos Erika, Kis Andrea, Révész Katalin Regina, Somogyvári Rita

13.10 – 13.20
Senzo-Felx Island
Dankó Zsófia, Fürstenfelder Andrea, Horváthné Széll Anita, Igali Edina, Tóth Maxima

13.20 – 13.30
Beyond the Surface - inclusive dating-app
Balázs M. Eszter, Horváth Tímea, Krácsonyi Szilvia, Lénártné Endre Emőke, Szabó-Kóczián Fruzsina

13:30-13:40
Képben Vagy!
Csurgó Krisztina, Fodor Regina, Juhász-Jakab Rita, Varga Gréta Bernadett, Wessják Viola

13:40-13:50
A language that is visible
Borosné Szakács Szilvia, Kása-Kovács Blanka, Kovács Lili, Kövesi Zsolt, Márki Alíz

13:50-14:00
Project celebration and closing
Farkasné dr. Gönczi Rita, university assistant professor, ELTE BGGYK, website owner

The online event will feature subtitles and interpretation for the English-language presentation. Participation is free.

Easy to understand communication

Easy-to-understand communication is the presentation of content units of information appearing in common language or at a more complex linguistic level or the development of independent information content in a simple, clear form that serves the understanding of the information. In the practice of easy-to-understand communication, grammar, as the entire system of language, is often applied along unique rules. An important principle in the application of easy-to-understand communication is the involvement of an experienced expert in the work and in the verification of the completed content.
More information about easy-to-understand communication: www.konnyenertheto.gonczirita.hu

Easy to understand communicatiom

Easy-to-understand communication presents information.
Information is shared between people.
We can provide our own information in an easy-to-understand way, or we can transform other people's information into an easy-to-understand way.
Text produced with easy-to-understand communication is understandable.

We use linguistic rules.
We use non-linguistic rules.
Rules describe how to write in an easy-to-understand way.
In easy-to-understand transformation, the rules must be followed.

In easy-to-understand writing, we can also use pictures.
Pictures help us understand the information.